5th May The White City Rainbow 2019

3rd Sunday
of Easter

We are a church that brings a welcoming and supportive presence into people's lives on the White City estate.

Today's Collect

Almighty Father,
who in your great mercy gladdened the disciples
with the sight of the risen Lord:
give us such knowledge of his presence with us, that we may be strengthened and sustained by his risen life and serve you continually in righteousness and truth;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Jesus Appears to Seven Disciples

After these things Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, 'I am going fishing.' They said to him, 'We will go with you.' They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, 'Children, you have no fish, have you?' They answered him, 'No.' He said to them, 'Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some.' So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, 'It is the Lord!' When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the lake. But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off.

When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, 'Bring some of the fish that you have just caught.' So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred and fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, 'Come and have breakfast.' Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, 'Who are you?' because they knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

Jesus and Peter

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, 'Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?' He said to him, 'Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my lambs.' A second time he said to him, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' He said to him, 'Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Tend my sheep.' He said to him the third time, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, 'Do you love me?' And he said to him, 'Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep. Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go.' (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, 'Follow me.'

Post Communion Prayer

Living God,
your Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: open the eyes of our faith, that we may see him in all his redeeming work;
who is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

TEN CHURCHES, TEN DAYS

This year's Kingdom Come season of prayer between Ascension and Pentecost falls at a particular moment in our national life. As we prepare to leave the European Union, it is more important than ever to express our common bond with Christians across Europe and beyond, as we pray for the spreading of the gospel not just in the UK but throughout the whole continent. Our common baptism is a stronger bond than any passport or political union, and it is good to find ways to express that unity.

Christians and Muslims eating and meeting in peace here in White City

During the Muslim holy month of Ramadan we are planning a community party at sunset to celebrate the IFTAR, or break of the daily fast. The date is probably Saturday 18th May at sunset, more details to follow.

Holy Envy: Finding God in the Faith of Others

Christians are taught that God is everywhere, and many of us experience the sacred in unexpected places: in nature, in friends and strangers, in music and the arts. But can we also encounter God in the faith of other people, of other faiths?

A talk at St Paul's Cathedral on Thursday 30th May at 6.30pm by Barbara Brown, who teaches world religion at a college in Georgia state, USA.

Are all religions alike, or are there riches in other faiths which may help us to be born afresh and more deeply within our own Christian tradition?

A prayer for you to use this week

Loving creator God,
You made each of our young people.
In their mother's womb you knit them together,
Be with them all their days at school, college and university.
As they sit examinations this summer please help them to know;

Your presence with them in the examination room,
Your peace within them as they answer questions,
Your provision for them as they explore their future.
Amen.
